

Cambridge Reproduction SRI Networking event

Friday 18 October 2–5pm, followed by drinks 5–7

Pavilion Room, Hughes Hall, Cambridge

14:00 Flash talks

Prediction of adverse pregnancy outcomes using metabolomics
Ulla Sovio (Obstetrics & Gynaecology)

Racehorses to rhinos
Nicky Holdstock (Clinical Veterinary Medicine)

Single cell epigenome landscape of development and ageing
Wolf Reik (Babraham Institute)

Changes in bone mineral during and after lactation in HIV-positive Ugandan women on antiretroviral therapy
Florence Nabwire (MRC Epidemiology Unit)

Reproduction, population and the limits of ethics
Simon Beard (Philosophy/CSER)

Avoiding early timing of puberty – a potential target for future interventions?
Ken Ong (MRC Epidemiology Unit/Paediatrics)

Reproducing anything from robots to omelettes
Fumiya Iida (Engineering)

15:00 Introduction to the Human Developmental Biology Initiative

15:15 Break

15:45 Interdisciplinary discussion on human genome editing

Tanya Brigden (PHG Foundation)

Amarpreet Kaur (Sociology)

Michelle Ware (CamBioScience)

Rumiana Yotova (Law)

16:30 Making a bigger impact with public engagement

Lucinda Spokes, Public Engagement and Festival Manager (Science)

17:00 Drinks reception